PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL...

Thank you to all our parishioners for your continued patience and co-operation within these on-going Covid restrictions. As these uncertain times continue, and Covid numbers are tentatively increasing, it is vital that we all stay committed to providing a safe environment for all to flourish in faith within our churches.

The Cathedral of the Assumption is open for private prayer each day from 11.30 a.m. until 5.00 p.m. with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. There are two daily masses at 11am and 7pm, including Sunday, with a maximum capacity of 150 people (50 in each section). All Cathedral Masses are live-streamed.

Bothar na Naomh Church is open daily for private prayer from 9.00 a.m. until 2pm and every Sunday for Mass at 9am, with a maximum capacity of 70 people (35 in each section). The 9.00 a.m. Mass is also live streamed from Bóthar na Naomh Church. We apologise that the Radio Link from Bóthar na Naomh Church has been delayed but will be available soon.

We would like to remind the congregation to continue to sit on the X, as these are clearly marked for social distancing. It is ok for families to sit alongside each other in the pews. Adherence to social distancing guidelines is paramount, as are hand hygiene measures. We appeal to everybody to avoid movement between zones before, during and after services The use of face coverings is now mandatory for indoor settings however we understand that some people are exempted from this regulation. Vulnerable members of our community may have a preference to continue viewing Mass on-line, as dispensation from the Sunday and Holyday obligation is extended for the foreseeable future. It is hoped that each person will consider attending a maximum of one mass per week to dispel the possibility of larger crowds attending any given mass, particularly at the weekend.

CONGRATULATIONS BISHOP ELECT, KILMORE DIOCESE - MARTIN HAYES

On behalf of the Parish Pastoral Council and the people of Thurles parish, we extend our heartfelt congratulations to Fr. Martin Hayes who this Sunday, September 20th will be consecrated as Bishop of Kilmore Diocese. We congratulate his family on this great occasion and acknowledge the great honour it is for them, Moycarkey, Littleton & Two-Mile-Borris Parish, Thurles Parish and Cashel & Emly Archdiocese. Fr. Martin, a native of New Hill, Two-Mile-Borris, served for many years in Thurles, initially in Bóthar Na Naomh, and later as Parish Administrator. Some of his lasting legacies include the development of Lámh Chúnta and establishment of the Parish Pastoral Council. His appointment as Director of the Diocesan Pastoral Planning involved the development of the Listening Process over the past three years, thereby continuing Pastoral Planning across the Diocese. This has been invaluable work in preparing our Parishes to better meet the needs and challenges for the future. We extend all our best wishes to Martin as he steps into a new chapter of his life and there will always be a welcome here for you in Thurles, and hopefully in a Covid-free future, the parish will celebrate with you in person.
